Nabi Musa

MANIFESTO:

We'd like to invite you for an upcoming project.

We found a special place in the desert, which we think would be great for a happening. We are searching for artists from diverse fields and departments, that work with different kinds of media and come from different countries to come and work with us.

We are foreigners here, and we are staying for a very short period of time.

Is being a stranger a strength or a disadvantage?

We would like to share our thoughts on this place through our perspective and through our original work, that will be exhibited in the place itself.

Let's meet in Nabi Musa and develop the idea together.
